

Questions and Answers

1. In the computer labs,

- A. I can seat wherever I want because I have not been assigned a seat.
- B. I am not allowed to touch wires or computer equipment, even if can fix it.
- C. I can play a game or go online until my teacher is ready

2. Before leaving the room, I must do the followings (more then one answer):

- A. Put my chair and keyboard in place
- B. Make sure my area is clean and I took my pens/pencils, books, papers with me
- C. Logging out
- D. Just talk with my classmate and leave when the bell rings

3. I am allowed to eat or drink in the computer lab.

- A. True
- B. False

4. I have been very good and my teacher says I can get a snack and eat it in the computer lab to reward me.

- A. True
- B. False

5. You should never give personal information when online.

- A. True
- B. False

6. If I do not follow the computer lab rules, I may end up doing all of the assignments by hand until I have proven that I can be trusted when using a computer at school. I can even be suspended and lose all of my computer rights if I go to inappropriate sites.

- A. True
- B. False

7. Before printing, I need to ask my teacher. If my teacher says it is ok to print, I can only print one copy.

A. True

B. False

8. It is OK to use a chat program in the Computer Lab if your work is done.

A. True

B. False

9. The definition of etiquette is to use good manners, be polite, and respect the property of others.

A. True

B. False

10. Computer labs are for learning and do what has been assigned to me. Playing Solitaire without my teacher's permission is computer misuse.

A. True

B. False

11. You have to provide copyright information for pictures you download from the Internet.

A. True

B. False

12. You are allowed to copy on-line information and turning it in as your own work.

A. True

B. False